My Grown Up & Me Dance Class

Ages 18 Months – 3 Years

Saturdays – July 11th to August 1st – 10:00AM to 10:30AM

Cost $50

Designed especially for our youngest dancers, My Grown Up & Me is a fun and engaging class where children ages 18 months to 3 years participate alongside a parent, grandparent, or special grown-up. Through music, movement, imaginative play, and age-appropriate dance activities, dancers will develop coordination, balance, rhythm, and other important motor skills while building confidence in a nurturing environment.

This class provides a wonderful opportunity for children to experience the joy of dance while sharing special one-on-one time with a loved one.

Under the guidance of experienced dance educator Amy Hlavaty Belcher, children will be introduced to basic dance concepts and classroom structure while enjoying the comfort and security of having their grown-up by their side.

As dancers gain confidence and independence, the class gently encourages participation without direct assistance, helping prepare them for future dance classes on their own. Most importantly, My Grown Up & Me creates lasting memories while fostering a lifelong love of movement, music, and dance.

No previous dance experience is required—just bring your favorite grown-up and a smile!
